BISHOP STANDS BY THE TAVERN

ASHAMED BECAUSE NEW YORK HAS NO TIVOLI GARDENS. The Convivial Spirit Was Put Into Man by His Creator-Open and Honest

Drinking Contrasted With Probibition

state Sneaking and Household Tippling e for discussion at the seventh ion of the Entertainment Club, Mrs. Roswell D. Hitchcock president, in the Astor Gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria last vening was "The Subway Tavern," and Potter was the principal speaker.

J. F. Pierson, president of the Army and Navy Club, in introducing Bishop Potter referred to attacks to which the Bishop was subjected, particularly from the religious press, as well as from the because of his public indorsement of the Subway Tavern enterprise. Bishop Potter himself, when he began his address, said that he had taken pains to come provided with a supply of charges he Hooper's suit is identical in character. had delivered long before the opening of the lavern, in which he had taken precisely the ground on the temperance question he had taken when he indorsed the Subway Tayern movement, and which he still

"But," continued the Bishop, "it seems there is a good deal of difference in some people's minds between a theory and a practical application of that theory.

I have received a good many abusive letters, but I have refrained from afflicting the management of the Subway Tavern with them. It may be interesting to some of you, and it may be shocking to some of you to know that I am credited with making a great deal of money out of the Subway Tavern-that I am believed by some people to have heavy financial interests in the venture.

'I have never been in the Subway Tavern but once, and the thing that occurred then which seems most to have shocked many of the people who have favored me with their criticisms was the singing on the occasion of that, my first and only visit, at the opening, of the long metre doxology, *Praise God From Whom All Bleesings Flow." That has been many times characterized as little short of blasphemy under the circumstances. The problem of temperance is the same in this land as in any other. The underlying causes of intemperance are the same in all countries, though their expression may be different. Insufficient nourishment, bad air or exposure to severe weather all have their effect. But the convivial note is the one that is oftenest struck in connection with drinking. Now the convivial note is in our physical and mental constitution because—shall I shock you if I say it?—because God put it there. Playing and recreation are not wrong, are not harmful. They are essential.

"I remember hearing a story about Barnum and the late Hishop Cox, whom some of you doubtless knew. The Bishop and the showman had been conversing together when the Bishop, about taking his leave, said with his usual courtly grace, 'Well, Mr. Barnum, I do not know as we shall ever meet again unless it be in heaven.' Well, Bishop,' replied the showman, 'if you are there we will meet.'

"Have any of you ever stopped to think of the different conditions of life under which you and I live and those under which to vast majority of the people of New York live!"

"Have any of you ever been in a New "Have any of you ever be The problem of temperance is the same the vast majority of the people of New York live?

"Have any of you ever been in a New York tenement? I remember one very hot day last summer I was driving through Twenty-sixth street on my way to the river where I was going to take dinner on a superb yacht owned by a friend of mine. As I drove along I saw men, women and children literally hanging out the tenement house windows to get a breath of fresh air. It was the very next day after that that I went down and made that speech at the opening of the Subway Tavern.

"If any of you have been in Copenhagen I hope you have visited the Tivoli Garden. That is a place of resort the idea of which was conceived by a wealthy and public spirited Dane, who was actuated by the highest sentiment, of humanity. It is a place where you may see people representhighest sentiment, of humanity. It is a place where you may see people representing all grades of social position assembled to hear good music and partake of good cheer, with the prices for the food and drink graded according to the means of those who patronize the place. I am proud of New York. I am not ashamed because I was not born in Boston. But I am ashamed because New York has no Tivoli Garden, and you ought to be also.

"Now, the Subway Tavern is an attempt along the lines of the Tivoli Garden. But," some of you may say, 'there is an acceptation of you may say, 'there is a bar there!' Well, yes, there is a bar there. Furthermore a man may go up to that bar, pay for a drink and drink it like an honest man. Furthermore, he is sure he is getting what he pays for and sure that what he is drink-repays for and sure that what he is drinking is not adulterated.

"You all know the state of affairs in the States where prohibition prevails. You know that in Topeka. Kan., as in Portland, Me., there is no transfer. Topeka there has got to be some mysterious furtive sign, some form of sneaking hypocrisy. All that is bad, very bad, and furtive sign, some and hypocrisy. All that is bad, very bad, and hypocrisy. All that is bad, very bad, but few people realize how bad it is or how bad a blow is struck thereby at the very foundations of social integrity.

I was talking with a Georgia clergyman the other day and he told me of a certain concoction which many ladies were in the habit of drinking privately when they feel depressed, a decoction when they feel depressed, a decoction when they feel depressed, a decoction that has 36 per cent. of alcohol in its com-position, and of still another that has 61 per cent, and another 10 per cent. If you condemn the sale of honest beer and ale and spirits and yet drink these things rivately, you contribute to the moral egeneration of the land. You are a liar begin with. You are teaching your children to become liars and hypocrites.

I was talking with a certain popular lecturer recently. He travels over a great deal of the country. He said that he was down South and was a guest in a private house. Just before dinner the hostess sald. I must ask you to excuse our having only water to drink with dinner, Mr. So-and-So. We have a son, a young man, and we do not think it right to set him an example of intemperance right here at The guest replied that it was a matter of indifference to him, that he cared little for wine at dinner. Soon after he was go-ing to his room upstairs when the hostess appeared at her bedroom door and beckoned to him in a secret, furtive manner, which he was singularly expressive. was still more impressed when the lady, after he had entered, shut the door. 'I (now, Mr. So-and-So,' she said, 'that you will not care for your dinner unless you have something to drink, and I have got a little something for you. Then she wought out a bottle of brandy. Soon after ought out a bottle of brandy. Soon after e guest was downstairs and the host ckoned him into the library. The host tonly shut the door, but locked it. Then brought out a bottle of whiskey.

"Soon after the guest was out on the grounds, walking about, and the son, the young hope of the family, said to him: Won't you walk out to the barn, Mr. So-and-So. I would like to he have the barn, Mr. Soand so. I would like to show you my horses. So the guest went to the barn and the young hopeful brought out a bottle of gin. Thus the father and mother were of gin. Thus the father and mother were dily educating their boy to become a common liar and hypocrite.

The Subway Tavern is a step along the lines taken by Earl Grey in England—lines that have there proved so successful. It is along those lines that all temperance reformation in New York must move if any victories are to be won. There have been great changes in the way of temperance. I can remember the time when just before a clergyman entered the pulpit to preach a glass of port wine was handed to him and he drank it. To-day such a thing would be considered shocking. And the last time I dined in Lambeth Palace the then Primate, the great Archbishop Temple, had for his only beverage at dinner a large glass of toast water."

PREACHER SUED FOR $200,000. The Rev. John Rose Asked to Pay That Sum for Causing False Arrests.

TO BE THE CONTRACTOR OF THE CO

BALTIMORE, Jan. 28.-William Hooper and Virginia Hamilton, who were yesterday acquitted of a charge of conspiracy to defraud the Rev. John Rose in an alleged bogus mining stock deal, instituted suit against the clergyman in the Baltimore City Court to-day, demanding $200,000 damages for alleged false arrest and mulicious pros-The amount sued for is said to be the largest ever claimed in a damage suit in the history of the local bar.

Separate suits were filed by the two plaintiffs, in each of which the amount of damages claimed is $100,000. It is charged that on July 18 last the Rev. Mr. Rose procured their arrest upon a charge of conspiring to defraud him and caused them to be locked up.

The acquittal of the plaintiffs yesterday is also recited, and Miss Hamilton declares that by reason of her arrest and the great publicity given to it her business of vocal instructor has been badly injured. Mr.

Mr. Rose is a retired Protestant Episcopal minister, and last July he purchased 9,500 shares of the stock of the Cripple Creek Gold Temple Mining Company from John B. Lawrence for $1 a share. The stock later turned out to be valueless. Miss Hamilton and Lawrence were arrested. The jury convicted Lawrence and acquitted Miss Hamilton and Hooper.

"LIVE AND LIFT."

Bath House John's Motto in His Campaign for Mayor of Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28 .- Alderman John Joseph Coughlin of the First ward gave out his Mayoralty platform yesterday. It was announced at the meeting of the Council Committee on Fire when Alderman Snow had asked him what the slogan of his campaign would be.

"Personal liberty," answered Alderman Coughlin promptly. "Lift the lid and keep it lifted. Live and let live; that's my motto. "Live and lift," suggested Snow.

"Yes; live and lift and lift and live. Boost, ne knocking; that's good enough for me." *But what are you going to do to us down in Hyde Park?" asked the Alderman from the Seventh ward.

"Let you alone. I'll be fair with everybody," declared Alderman Coughlin.

PRINCETON TURRETS TO GO. Nassau Hall to Resume Its Ante-Revolutionary Appearance.

PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 28 .- The two turrets which rise at each end of Nassau Hall, or "Old North," at Princeton, are soon to be removed. The object is to restore the historic old building to a shape as near as possible to that which it had before the Revolution and at the time when British soldiers camped within its walls. The towers were added about fifty years ago, when the building was being repaired after a fire had damaged it.

ARRESTED ON MEXICAN CHARGE. Felly Mointyre, Found on Steamer, Monterey, Shows Cash and Diamonds. Felix McIntyre, said to be a lawyer and to have been hunted for two years and more by Pinkerton detectives for alleged forgeries all over the West, was arrested on board the Ward liner Monterey, from Mexico, at Quarantine yesterday. He is charged with having cashed a forged draft charged with having cashed a forged draft for $800 on the Bank of the City of Mexico. Information of his sailing was sent to the law firm of Johnson, Warner & Galston of 49 Wall street, counsel for the bank. Just after the Monterey sailed, the despatches said, a draft which had been cashed by McIntyre was found to be worthless.

McIntyre was cool when arrested and displayed $2,380 in money and a lot of diamonds, laughing at a charge of stealing $800.

It is alleged by the Pinkertons that since Sept. 1 he has beaten at least seven banks and individuals in Western States out of sums ranging from $150 to $250. He was taken to Police Headquarters yesterday and will be in the Tombs court to-day.

WAGON BETWEEN STREET CARS. Its Occupants, Mrs. O'Rourke and Her and her son John, 13 years old, were riding was struck by two trolley cars on the Douglas street line, in Brooklyn, last night, and both the woman and boy were badly injured.

The accident occurred at Schenectady avenue, where an eastbound car struck the wagon and threw it across the eastbound tracks in front of a rapidly approaching car. The wagon was caught between the cars and crushed.

The woman and boy were thrown on to a snow pile, which partly broke their fall. They were attended by a doctor from St. Mary's Hospital, and it was found that the boy's hip had been crushed. Mrs. the boy's hip had been crushed. Mrs. O'Rourke escaped with several severe cuts about the head. They were removed to their home on Howard avenue, Eastern OLD HORSE FED AND KILLED. Driver Arrested on Cruelty Complaint by William Clark Jewett.

A worn out horse, covered with sores and drawing a wagon, fell at the corner of Fifty-fourth street and Broadway last night. The driver, William H. Johnson, clubbed the horse with his whip, but the animal was too exhausted to get up.

A man who said he was William Clark Jewett of 3 East Seventeenth street asked Jewett of 3 East Seventeenth street asked the man to stop, and finally called Police-man Knapsher of the West Forty-seventh street station. Mrs. Henry Russ Drowne, who lives in the Winsonia, at Fifty-fourth street and Broadway, threw a cloak over her shoulders and fed the horse with apples. Johnson was locked up on the complaint of Mr. Jewett. The horse was killed by an agent of the Bergh society. agent of the Bergh society.

MARRIAGE JUST ANNOUNCED. Lawyer William Elkus Took a Bride Last

November. Although Lawyer William Elkus and when it was announced by advertisement.

It was explained that publicity was not given to the marriage at its date because of the illness of the groom, who, with his wife, is now in the South recuperating Mr. Elkus is a brother of Abram 1. Example 1. The marriage took place at 230 West 1 and atreet, the home of the bride's parents.

Plan a Silverwork Exhibit. Engravers to the number of 130, employed by the silverware manufacturers, met last evening in the German Masonic Temple, 220 Fast Fifteenth street, and formed a permanent organization, which is to give once a year an exhibit of the work of the members. Mortimer A. Smith, chairman of the meeting, was authorized to appoint a committee which will carry into effect

Found Frozen to Death.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Jan. 28 .- So badly frozen was the body of James Bond, which was found near Griffins Corners, that it took ten hours to thaw the frost out of it so that an examination could be made by the physicians. There were no indications of violence and an autopsy was not considered necessary. Bond was a laborer, and wandernecessary. Bond was a laborer, and wander-ing off the road had frozen to death while

HONOR M'KINLEY'S MEMORY.

WEST SIDE REPUBLICAN CLUB GIVES ITS ANNUAL DINNER.

Stewart L. Woodford and Congressmen Mann and Boutell Speak-Plea for Southern Immigration-W. S. Bennet Would Run a Republican for Mayor.

The West Side Republican Club held its annual dinner last night at Delmonico's in in memory of William McKinley. Covers Mc were laid for more than two hundred, and every place was taken. McKinley's place in history and the achievements of his Administrations, with special reference to their effects on the future foreign policy of this Government, were reviewed by Stewart L. Woodford, ex-Minister to Spain, and Congressmen Henry S. Boutell and James R. Mann of Illinois Among the diners were Justice Samuel Greenbaum, Surrogate Theodore H. S. Silkman of Westchester, ex-Assemblyman Elmer E. Cooley, Justice John Proctor Clarke, Congressman William H. Douglass, Justice Edward McCall, Chairman William Halpin of the Republican county committee, Postmaster William R. Willcox, Abe Gruber, S. P. Carmichael and Justice Hirschberg.

Gen. Woodford told of his first meeting with McKinley. That, he said, was in the try, died yesterday morning at the home campaign of 1875. He had gone to Canton of his son, Irving R. Wiles, the portrait to deliver a speech, and as he stepped off the car platform he was welcomed, he said, by a soldierly young man who said merely that he was the chairman of the local committee that had been selected to entertain Gen. Woodford during his stay in the city. "His face," said Gen. Woodford, "was his manner just as courteous as it ever was while he occupied the White House." "I believe," he continued, "that it will just as studious then, his eye just as kindly, was while he occupied the White House."

"I believe," he continued, "that it will be recognized that the life and influence of William McKinley are and must remain among the enduring forces in the life of this Republic. I thank his memory that he gave the impulse which Theodore Roosevelt and John Hay are so bravely upholding in the Orient for the open door and the peaceful commerce of the world.

"In the memory and spirit of William McKinley we shall ask no territorial aggrandizement. In his spirit and memory we shall ask for no special concessions. But in his spirit and memory we shall ask for no special concessions. But in his spirit and memory we mean to ask for equal opportunities with every flag on the broad Pacific. I look forward with you to larger results, to the more perfect fruition of the things that have gone before. And I look forward with confidence that our flag will never be the flag of conquest or or injustice, but always the flag of equal opportunity and a square deal for all who are under its protection."

Congressman Mann said that he would much rather speak on the subject of "Poor Relations," or even his "Wife's Relations," than he would on "Foreign Relations."

Mr. Mann is a member of the Panama Canal Committee.

"We propose," said he, "in constructing

Canal Committee.

"We propose," said he, "in constructing that canal to present it to mankind, the greatest gift ever made to the world. It will be paid for with our money, but given

Mr. Mann said that there was no feature of the Government's foreign relations so acute as its dealings with the other re-publics on this centinent. "We assume," said he, 'to be the great

"We assume," said he, "to be the great policeman on this continent and when we insist that other nations shall not collect their debts by force from the South American republics we become their guarantors."

Speaking of the Panama Canal again, Mr. Mann said:

"In the future conflicts of civilization, perhaps of the races, who knows when the hordes of Chinese may not be awakened as the Japanese have been since an American Admiral landed there? Who knows when they may not begin a movement across the Pacific? It is the purpose of this Government to so sustain itself that no European Government will be allowed to use the Chinese as puppets against this use the Chinese as puppets against this

Also it is our stern purpose to have share of the Orient's trade, subject to tribute by no nation except China. I know of no men so well fitted to achieve this Government's purposes as John Hay, the most skilful diplomat in the world, and President Roosevelt, the most courageous man in the world, and that, too, with dignity to ourselves, with respect on the part of the world and with lasting benefit to civilization."

Yesterday morning at his home, 147th street, after being ill a we pneumonia. He was 62 years old.

Mr. Trask for several years was Congressman Boutell spoke on the Southern problem, saying:

"Manifold advantages of climate, soil, Trask's frie Europe. But these advantages are not widely known. In Europe the prevalent opinion is that our Southern States consist of vast pampas and unwholesome swamps devoted exclusively to the cultivation of tobacco, cotton and sugar. Here is an opportunity for the Government to atone in a measure for the evils inflicted on the South in reconstruction times, by showing to the world the advantages which the South offers to capital and labor.

"During the last twenty years 10,000,000"
"During the last twenty years 10,000,000"
"Track was born in Hartford, Conn., and was married twice. He is survived the South offers to capital and labor.

"During the last twenty years 10,000,000 immigrants settled in our Northern and Western States. If we could divide this "During the last twenty years 10,000,000 immigrants settled in our Northern and Western States. If we could divide this stream of immigration and during the next twenty years welcome to the South 5,000,000 or, better still, of our own people from the North then your club, Mr. President, might in 1925 celebrate the solution of the Southern problem as the best gift of this century to the nation."

Congressman-elect William S. Bennet talked about a straight Republican ticket and declared that Mayors Strong and Low would have been elected even if they had run on a Republican ticket only. The trouble with fusion, he said, is that it makes the young and careless voter always think Miss Emily Louise Seldenberg were mar- their annual banquet. Cornell and Coried on Nov. 21, 1904, many of their friends lumbia had the largest number of reprewere not aware of the fact until yesterday, sentatives, and together with Princeton

The Rev. John Howard Melish, rector of Hely Trinity, spoke on good citizenship. If Sloat Fassett of Elmira talked about the Eastern question. He held that there need be no fear of a yellow peril. Rear Admiral Coghlan told how he followed Dewey into Manila Bay. He deplored the fact that naval officers were too closely instructed to tell the truth to make good speakers.

NEWSBOY GRABBED HIS WATCH. Chicago Man Seeing the Sights With Party Has a Personal Experience.

George Muller of Chicago, who is stopping at the Grand Hotel, took a New York friend and a couple of women to the Haymarket last night to see the sights.

A newsboy opened the door of Muller's coupé, and as the Chicago man was getting out grabbed his watch and fob and ran Muller went to the Tenderloin station and reported his loss. He didn't care so much about the watch, he said, but the fob was studded with diamonds and worth $125.

CHARITIES BOAT IN THE ICE: Fidelity Stuck Off Fort Schuyler, With Maay

Other Craft. For the first time since Tuesday the Department of Charities boat Fidelity went from the Morgue to Hart's Island yesterday, with fifty bodies. The boat started back in the afternoon with Capt. McCassle in command, a crew of eight men and two bodies that had been dis-

Off Willet's Point the Fidelity was caught the ice. Capt. McCassie got word to Morgue Keeper Armstrong, and at 10 o'clock last night Armstrong telephoned to Fort Schuyler to find out if the Fidelity was still stuck. The guard was turned out, and in about fifteen minutes Armstrong and in about fifteen minutes Armstrong received this message:

"There are so many boats stuck in the ice off here that we couldn't tell the Fidelity even if she is among them."

On the general principle that the Fidelity would be at her dock, at the foot of Twenty-sixth street. if she wasn't icebound, Chief Engineer Hamilton of the Department of Charities chartered the tug Nonparell and sent her to rescue the Fidelity. The Fidelity had only a small supply of coal.

LEMUEL M. WILES DEAD. Well Known as a Landscape Painter and a Teacher of Art.

Lemuel M. Wiles, a landscape painter known as a teacher to many hundreds of art students in various parts of the counpainter, 101 West Fifty-fifth street, of pneumonia. He was in his seventy-ninth

Mr. Wiles organized the art school in connection with the University of Nashville, at Nashville, Tenn., some years ago, and for many years he conducted a school for art students at Silver Lake, in western New York, during the summer seasons, besides having taught in various other places during having taught in various other places during his long life.

He was born in Perry, Wyoming county, in this State in 1826. His parents were among the early settlers in that section. He taught penmanship in Utica and Albany before coming to New York to study art, upon which he had early determined as his life vocation, and later he founded an art school at Ingham University, at Le Roy, N. Y.

Roy, N. Y.

He was a student in this city of J. F. Roy, N. Y.

He was a student in this city of J. F.
Cropsey, at that time a well known American landscape painter, and he worked for some time in Washington. A generation ago he made a trip to California, at a time when the journey had to be made, or could best be made, by way of the Isthmus of Panama, and on various horseback tours among the old Spanish settlements and into the mountains of the Pacific Slope he made a series of sketches, studies and paintings which are historically valuable.

In "Artists of the Nineteenth Century," published in 1879, it was said of his works on this tour: "These are valuable as the only studies in color yet obtained of the old mission churches and cathedrals of those regions." Which gives an inkling or an echo of the conditions of travel and of American art development at that time.

He was for many years a regular exhibitor

He was for many years a regular exhibitor at the National Academy of Design and at other exhibitions about the East and South, and his early paintings found lodgment in private and institutional galleries which were then collecting American pictures, including the collection of Cardinal McCloskey of New York, and a gallery in Montreal

Montreal.

He had a studio in the old building of the New York University at University place and Washington Square, where S. F. B. Morse and many other well known New Yorkers had their studios years ago, and later moved uptown to the old Y. M. C. A. building opposite the old Academy of Design, in Twenty-third street, only later to follow the uptown movement of the painters further to Fifty-fifth street, but he refused to follow the modern men in the changing style of painting. Hisportrait, painted by his son, has been exhibited and has received medals in various cities of the United States and at Paris.

WAYLAND TRASK DEAD.

and Nearly Succeeded.

Mr. Trask for several years was head of the brokerage firm of Wayland Trask & Co., with offices at 7 Nassau street. In 1896 the firmfailed, and a good many of Mr. Trask's friends who had been induced by him to take stock in an Alabama railroad were hit hard. Mr. Trask was able to pay only the stock in an Alabama railroad were the firmfailed, and a good many of Mr. Trask was able to pay only the stock in an Alabama railroad were the firmfailed. There are more than 9,000 Italians here, but there are many of this number who do not work. Little Son, Badly Hurt.

A wa gon in which Mrs. Mary O'Rourke and future prospects and future prospects to take stock in an Alabama rangout were raining the Northern States and immigrants from the dollar, but his creditors released him from his obligations to them.

Europe. But these advantages are not future prevalent.

In Europe the prevalent in the avowed purpose of voluntarity known sugar planters in Louisiana, died society or of Barre or of anything pertaining in New Orleans on Friday, aged Si years. talked about a straight Republican ticket and declared that Mayors Strong and Low would have been elected even if they had run on a Republican ticket only. The trouble with fusion, he said, is that it makes the young and careless voter always think that he must vote against something and not for something. There will be no difficulty in getting a straight Republican candidate in a city that has produced a President, an Ambassador to England and one to France.

"If we are obliged to go with fusion," he said, "don't let us get into a bunco game again. When an organization comes to us and asks us to add our strength to theirs and we investigate and find that 85 per cent.

(Capt. E. T. Seliers, one of the founders of again. When an organization comes to us and asks us to add our strength to theirs and we investigate and find that 85 por cent. of their strength is already Republican let's be cautious."

COLLEGE MEN SING AND YELL.

University Club Dines—Why Naval Officers Are Had Speakers.

Over 150 college men gathered in the University Club in Brooklyn last night at their annual banquet. Cornell and Columbia had the largest number of representatives, and together with Princeton they kept the air ringing with yells and songs.

Congressman J. Adam Bede of Minnesota was slated for the first speech, but Hamlin Garland took his place. The Congressman arrived later and made the closing speech of the evening.

The Rev. John Howard Melish, rector of Hely Trinity, spoke on good citizenship. J. Sloat Fassett of Elmira talked about the Eastern question. He held that there need of Fiday night, at his home, 520 Central officers and sake us to add our strength to theirs and asks us to add our strength to theirs and we had held a number of the founders of offices in that parish.

Capt. E. T. Sellers, one of the founders of the agricultural system of Louisiana, died yesterday at Minden, La., aged 61. He represented the parish eight years in the Louisiana. Legislature and the Seenatorial district at the same time. He was one of the chief offices in the parish.

Capt. E. T. Sellers, one of the founders of the agricultural system of Louisiana, died yesterday at Minden, La., aged 61. He represented the parish eight years in the Louisiana and the Senatorial district at the same time. He was one of the chief officers and Lagislature and the Senatorial district at the same time. He was one of the chief officers and the Sellers, one of the chief officers and the seriented the parish light years in the Louisiana, died was transited the parish light years in the Louisiana for Lagislature and the senatorial district at the same time. He was agreed to the sargicultural institute at Minden under the same time. He was one of the chief officers at the sa Davis's remains will be cremated in London. Thompson E. F. Randolph died suddenly on Friday night at his home, 520 Central avenue, Plainfield, N. J., at the age of 72 years. For nearly half a century he was the Eastern representative for the Pillsbury interests. He was a member of the Produce Exchange for a number of years. He is survived by a wife and five daughters.

1. Osoar Hebert, Sheriff of Vermillion parish, La., died there suddenly yesterday, aged only 34. Starting in humble circumstances as a stable boy, he rose to be Sheriff when only 24 and held the office up to the time of his death, being elected three terms.

erms.
Charles Carroll, 84 years old, a retired nerchant, of Fast Ninety-sixth street, Canarsie, died suddenly last night in a hotel on Rockaway avenue. He was a member of Grant Post, G. A. R. He leaves a widow Four New Cruisers to Be Placed in Commission by May Next.

The Drink Habit

Construction of the constr

Blocks the Road to Financial Success.

Once the Thirst for Drink is Created, Voluntary Effort to Conquer It is o No Avail. THE OPPENHEIMER TREATMENT Overcomes the Alcoholic Craving Within 48 Hours. No Detention from Business.

THE OPPENHEIMER INSTITUTE

159 WEST 34TH STREET

TELEPHONE 5717-38.

DIRECTORS.

JAMES H. ALEXANDER, Formerly Vice-Prestdent Standard Oil Co.

JOSE AYMAR. Lawyer, New York.

IRVING BACHELLER, Author of "Eben Holden."
FEROY W. BALDWIN, President Empire Trust Co., New York.

Co., New York.

CHARLES P. BROWN, Banker and Broker, New York.

CHARLES P. BROWN, CHARLES EVANS, President Atlantic City National Bank.

A. H. DE HAVEN, De Haven & Townsend, New York, S. Detroit, Mich. J. OLIVER H. LAU, M. D., Detroit, Mich. JOHN MacGINNISS, Vice-President United Copper Co., Butte, Mont. Mont. MacGINNISS, VICe-President United Copper Co., Butte, Mont. Mont.

RESULTS ASSURED.

Brooklyn Office, Temple Bar Bldg.

Newark, N. J., 129 Wickliffe Street.

LOCAL INSTITUTES.

Atlantic City. Knozville, Tenn. Philadelphia. Asbury Park, N. J. Wilson, N. C. Betroit. Pittsburg. West Philadelphia. London, Eng.

THE OPPENHEIMER NERVE TONIC

Positively non-alcoholic and absolutely free from injurious drugs. Replenishes nerve vigor and restores nerve tone. Strengthens without stimulating. Creates healthy appetite. Forwarded on receipt of price, $5.00.

IN A LEAGUE OF ASSASSINS.

Downtown Office, 170 Broadway.

CZOLGOSZ AND BRESCI BELONGED TO ONE GROUP HERE.

Fire in an Italian Printing Place in Barre, Vt., Reveals Anarchists There and in West Hoboken, N. J.-Italians Sending Out Pictures of McKinley's Slayer.

BARBE, Vt., Jan. 28 .- Discoveries made in the fire ruins of an Italian socialistic newspaper plant here have established a connection between Leon Czolgosz, President McKinley's assassin, and Bresci, who killed King Humbert of Italy.

In spreading their propaganda the Italian Socialists have been scattering broadcast photographs of Czolgosz, making him a hero and instilling in the minds of their countrymen a belief that it would be heroic to emulate him.

Cronta Soverflia was the name of a publication printed in a wooden building on Blackwell street, in this town, ostensibly one of the ordinary Socialist organs printed in the Italian language, but it has been learned from the discoveries and other incidents that the place was a hotbed of anarchism. On Jan. 14 the building was destroyed by fire, and when the structure was in flames dozens of Italians rushed into it, smashing forms, pocketing handfuls of type, snatching packages and bundles and taking them into the Italian district. One of the firemen saw an Italian drop a package and he picked it up and shoved it into his pocket. Day before yesterday he opened the package and found it contained more than 100 photographs of Czolgosz. On the back of every one was stamped "Circolo Studi Sociale, P. O. box 158, West Hoboken,

Went to Work at 54 to Pay Off His Debts, The publication of the paper here began soon after President McKinley died, and Wayland Trask, for many years a member | the men at the head of it have been here of the New York Stock Exchange, died ever since. The men who rented the buildyesterday morning at his home, 422 West | ing are unknown to the owner, B. T. Hewes, 147th street, after being ill a week with the lease being in the company name of the paper. There are more than 9,000 Italians here.

West Hoboken regarding the address found on the photographs of Czolgosz prove that the Barre plant in reality covered an important branch of that most dangerous of anarchist organizations, the "Circolo Anarchico." The "Circolo Studi Sociali" stamped on the back of the photographs was one of the many names for the organization of anarchists in this country and Quintavalla, alleged accomplice of its secretary. Bresci himself was believed to have been a member. The despatch further says that Alberta Corossa, secretary of the society, rented the post office box 158 and gave his address as 726 Demott street, but no such man could be found there, and no one in that neighbor-Major James Vignes, one of the best found who would admit knowledge of the

> An investigation by Secret Service men. it is said, is being made in hopes of securing evidence that will break up the anarchist societies both here and in Hoboken.

SMALLEST CIGAR FACTORY.

It is in Minneapolls and Has a Capacity of a Box a Day. MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 28.-Minneapolis has the smallest cigar factory in the United States, according to the records of the internal revenue office here. Every day, among the wholesalers, who Every day, among the wholesalers, who buy from $500 to several thousand dollars' worth of stamps, an old man goes into the office and puts down 15 cents for one stamp. When questioned about his factory he said that he buys two pounds of tobacco and that he and his wife roll the cigars. Carrying a box bearing the United States stamp he sallies out among the business offices of the city and generally lands a purchaser. He has continued this means of livelihood for five years, and in a moment of con-for five years, and in a moment of con-fidence he told Deputy Collector H. F. Dains to-day that he has never at any time had more than 15 cents ahead to buy stamps.

SAID TO BE 115 YEARS OLD. Levi Russ, Who Once Expected to Be the First Occupant of a Cemetery.

Passaic, N. J., Jan. 28.-Levi Russ, said to be 115 years old, died here to-day as a it was twenty minutes before the result of exposure during the recent storm. result of exposure during the recent storm.
Russ, who was known in the Dundee section of Passaic as Lazarus, has been a familiar character there for several years.

He is said to have been brought to Passaic from New York twelve years ago, when it was thought he was dying, in order that he might be the first to be buried in a new Hebrew cemetery. He recovered, however, and he has since been supported by a Jewish society. There is no proof at hand that he was anywhere near 115 years old.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28. The Navy Department plans to place the armored cruiser
West Virginia and the protected cruiser Galveston in commission on Feb. 15. The armored cruiser Pennsylvania will be placed in commission about March 11 and the armored cruiser Maryland in April.

having all the teams registered.

The following teams very represented Yale Park team, by A. N. Kjellander; Maxwell House of Brooklyn, by John H. Chase; Armitage A. Clof New York, by J. A. McCord, Hudson City J. M. C. A., by H. L. Ludwig; the armored cruiser Maryland in April.

BEST& 6 Special Sale.

Infants' Colored Winter Coats, $3.25 up.

Infants' Colored Spring Coats, $2.00 up.

> Pique Reefers, $4.00 up. Spring Weight Reefers,

> > $3.00 up. Colored Capes.

All At Greatly Reduced Prices.

60-62 West 23d Street.

ART SALES AND EXHIBITIONS.

ART SALES AND EXHIBITIONS.

American Art Galleries Madison Square South, New York.

To-Morrow, MONDAY Afternoon, at 2:30, CONTINUING TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND

FRIDAY AFTERNOONS AT THE SAME HOUR,

Thomas E. Waggaman

EVENING SESSIONS To-Morrow (Monday) and Tuesday Evenings

Promptly at 8 o'Clock. Bresci, the assassin of King Humbert, was Antique Japanese Color Prints, Kakemonos, Panels. Books and exceedingly rare old Screens.

> European Etchings and Fine Art Books. The Sale Will Be Conducted by Mr. Thomas E. Kirby of

THE AMERICAN ART ASSOCIATION, MANAGERS, 6 East 23d Street, Madison Square South, New York, ports and Screams on Broadway.

The northbound Broadway cars on the section from Twenty-third to Forty-fifth stalled, beginning in front of the Hotel Imperial. The trouble seemed to be in the trolley slot in front of the hotel and a gang trying to remedy the trouble when there was a loud report and a burst of flame that made the lights of Broadway look like

The flames ran along the slot to the stalled cars, in which several women were waiting. They jumped out in a hurry

BASKETBALL TEAMS TO REGISTER Delegates in Favor of the Idea Meet of the Xavier A. C. Delegates of several basketball cha met at the Xavier Club, 205 West Fourteend street, on Friday night, at the invitation of the basketball committee of the Metro politan Association of the A. A. U. Fran I. Gross presided. George T. Hebron, sec-retary of the National A. A. U.; Dr. George J. Fisher and others spoke of the advisability of the A. A. U. controlling basketball and having all the teams registered.

TROLLEY SHOT FIREWORKS.

Cars Stalled: Flashes of Flame: Loud Reports and Screams on Broadway.

Xavier A. C., by John Foggi: Booklyn Central Y. M. C. A., by James C. Russell; Metropolitans, by Thomas H. Smith: Young Men's Hebrew Association, by Harry Spering: Orange B. B. team, by W. N. Miller; Bay Ridge Division Volunteer Life Savers, by George A. section from Twenty-third to Forty-fifth Thorman; Knickerbeckers, by O. Jensen, street stopped running about 9 o'clock East Side Y. M. C. A. of New York, by C. T. last night, and a long string of them was Miller; Emanuel House of Brooklyn, by C. J. Jones: Invincibles, by W. P. Humphreys, West End Wanderers, by E. A. Hamilton, Mohawk A. A., by A. J. Ward, Wanderers of Brooklyn Welcome Hall, by A. H. Delof workmen was put to work on the channel fause. Atlas A. C., by M. Cohn. St. Aloysius A. C., by M. A. Doyle, Gordon A. A., by C. They discovered that the current had F. Ranges; Yorkyilles, by Theodore C. Jung, been short circuited and they were and Brooklyn Boys'club, by D. E. Jaynes.

trying to remedy the trouble when there.

The spirit of the meeting was that all the appointed a temporary committee to meet the teams in the vicinity of Newark and take up the matter there. Thomas H. Smith and Harry Sperling were appointed to look after New York city, and immediately issued a call for all New York city teams to meet on and added their screams to the outcries of a gang of Italian snow shovellers, who dropped their shovels and fled when the flame burst out.

For several minutes the flame ran along the slot, and there were explosions which sounded like big guns. A big crowd was a ttracted by the fireworks, and the windows of the Imperial were filled with people gazing at the display. After the expensions were running.

BASKETBALL TEAMS TO REGISTER

No Breakfast Table complete without

The Most Nutritions

and Economical